

Today's smaller families often don't have large, traditional holiday meals.

Here are a few alternatives to cooking large, whole turkeys...

Smaller Turkeys

Fresh, 8- to 10-pound whole turkeys are becoming more common, resulting in faster, more convenient preparation of holiday (and year-round) feasts.

Dark or light meat? Select packaged fresh parts—breasts, drumsticks, whole legs—or processed turkey products to buy only the amount and type of meat you'll use.
